TO THE DIRECTOR

This straight-ahead blues swings hard right from the start, and the entire band has a chance to dig into lots of hard swinging, satisfying figures.

In general, isolated eighth notes, eighth notes at the ends of phrases and capped quarter notes should be played fat, with a touch of extra emphasis and length as appropriate. The horns have ample opportunities to “lay back” and play a little behind the beat.

Remember to blow through all of the phrases and use the airstream to make the accents happen on the longer phrases. Any soloist can be featured with backgrounds on cue at measure 47.

Challenge your students to see if they can find the anagram hidden in the title!

SoloMate recordings are available at kendormusic.com for new Kendor and Doug Beach releases. This innovative resource lets students practice their solos by downloading professionally-recorded rhythm section accompaniment tracks.
